Christmas spirit is the good feeling that you have when you wake up Christmas morning to see your family. The person who hated Christmas, the Grinch says "Christmas don't come from the store, maybe Christmas means a little bit more." Nowadays people just expect gifts from their family and friends instead of "surprise! I've got presents for you!" Winter is the season of happiness and magic. Homeless and families living in poverty even celebrate Christmas by seeing each other. Everyone feels Christmas spirit in a different way but seeing family is how I feel Christmas Spirit. Merry Christmas!
