

Boy #7 (Age 10)

What Christmas means to me is spending time with my family and friends. It's not only about that though, it is also about appreciate what we get because not everyone has a home or toys. So I think people should be thankful and most of all people should not just care for toys, they should stop and think about how much stuff they have. Then they can donate or something to a hospital or even an orphanage. For example, I had to get rid of stuff but now I am donating books, toys, colored pencils, crayons, If you do give away stuff you'll feel better after that, trust me. That is what Christmas means to me. Most of all I want to appreciate everyone that wrote something for Jingle and Mingle.
