

Girl #18 (Age 10)

Have you ever really recognized what Christmas is all about? Well you're in luck, I am going to tell you about the real Christmas spirit!

Well let's start on what Christmas means to me. Well the biggest thing is celebrating Jesus on his birthday. Christmas is not just about presents. It is also about family. Christmas also means love, love is good so this Christmas give some love. If you still don't know what Christmas means to me, I can tell you plenty more. Christmas means joy, happiness and to enjoy what you have & be thankful. I hope you enjoyed what I have put together for you.

You can never forget the cookies for Santa. I hope you share some love this holiday. I hope you have a great and wonderful holiday.
