

Girl #23 (Age 11)

Wow! The world is turning a glowy white. Oh how this brings back memories and joy! Like the time we wrapped me and my sister in Christmas lights. Or the time my dog took the wrapping paper. Oh no! I'm gonna be late for church! You can come if you want to. Oh! You do? Well follow me, I'll show you stuff we do for Christmas. It all starts when we gather in the main room to put presents under the tree. We give the presents to kids who don't get presents like me and you. Now it's time to go to the main stage where we will light candles to remember our fallen family members. It's really sad but in the end we all can come together for the spirit of Christmas.
