

Prince #1

Christmas is a very special holiday. For some people, Christmas can mean no school, presents, a big party, but for me, Christmas is a celebration of the birth of Christ. So, I am a Christian, which means that you follow God and believe in him/her. It is one of the most important parts of the bible, when Jesus (the son of God) was born. This is actually the main reason that we celebrate Christmas and why we even call it Christmas. We give presents because it is nice to give presents and when you give a present you are giving in the name of God because you aren't giving in an evil way. Christmas also means having time with your family. If Christmas wasn't a thing, you would have to spend less time with your family in December. For example, there is school for kids in December and there is work for grown ups. Christmas break lets school be out and there is no work for some grown ups. During Christmas break, you have more time with your family and since the break is usually long, you can go places. Celebrating Jesus' birth shows what Christmas means to me.
