

Princess #10

What Christmas means to me is Jesus being born. There were shepherds and angels, and they did not have a hotel to stay in. God provided a manger for Jesus; God provides homes for us too. What Christmas means to me is a house full of decorations, like a Christmas tree with lights and ornaments. The star at the top of the tree means the wise men could find their way. We can pray to God and He will help us find our way too. What Christmas means to me is lots of family together. From close or far away, we can always have fun. It's like a birthday party, that is Jesus's, so we can pray and talk to Him, even wish Him a good birthday. What Christmas means to me is snow and lots of snowflakes. The ground gets covered in snow, we can put on warm clothes and go outside and play in it. Snowflakes are beautiful in so many ways, snowflakes are made by God and each of them is unique. Like all of us.
