

Princess #24

What Christmas means to me is spending time with the people I love most, my family. One of the first things we do together is decorate our Christmas tree. My mom saves all the Christmas ornaments my sisters and I made growing up and all the ornaments we got from special people and that's what we use to decorate the tree. Our Christmas tree is a big family memory and is very special to me. Another thing we do is get together and go outside and go sledding. After we are done, we go inside and enjoy some hot cocoa to warm us up. During Christmas my grandma and grandpa come over and make Christmas cookies. We have so much fun decorating them. We also have a competition to see who decorates the best cookie. Sometimes we will go on winter break vacations. Last year we went to Snowshoe Mountain and we all tried snowboarding for the first time. During Christmas my family also likes to sing Christmas songs and watch Christmas movies together. One of the best things about Christmas is all the good food that my mom makes and my whole family comes over and we all enjoy it together. What Christmas means to me is something that a lot of people might not get to do or might take for granted. Christmas means spending time with the people I love the most.
