

Princess #3

What Christmas means to me is the feeling of being happy and grateful. We should be happy because it might help someone who is having a bad day. We should be grateful about Christmas because it celebrates when Jesus Christ was born. Things about Christmas that make me happy are Christmas music and being with family. Christmas music makes me happy because it is joyful. Being with family during Christmas makes me happy because your family takes time out of their day to gather together and have fun. I think that we should be grateful because Christmas honors when Jesus Christ was born. We should celebrate when Jesus Christ was born because he died on the cross for our sins. A verse that reminds me of that is John 3:16. John 3:16 Says "For God so loved the world that he gave us his one and only son to save us." If Jesus did not die on the cross for our sins we would not be able to have eternal life with him in Heaven. We should remember that Christmas is not just about presents. It is about being happy and grateful. But giving gifts to people we love shows them that we care about them. That is what Christmas means to me
