Princess #33

What Christmas means to me is spending time with family and friends and celebrating the birth of our savior, Jesus. It's not about the presents you get or how much money you spend. It's the love IN the present that really matters. I mean, it's better to give that to get. My family is not rich or anything like that but we are hoping to help another family that is in need like we did last year. We like to help make sure a needier family has a nice Christmas, too. If I had one Christmas wish it would be for everyone to know Jesus.