

This is what Christmas means to me. First Because of the holiday season. Then it is Jesus birthday. Next because of the present .

Then we usually watch holiday movies. Then I love spending time with my family. Next when I look at my families faces when they open their presents it just makes me feel so happy. Next me and my family love to play Christmas games together. Next me and my family usually have other family members over.