

Christmas is a holiday of celebration. Let me explain.

People all over the world celebrate Christmas for many different reasons. One of the reasons people celebrate Christmas is the birth of baby Jesus. Everyone would gather around a feast and bring gifts.

People also celebrate Christmas to give and receive gifts. Many like to give gifts to show appreciation. Some like to receive gifts. People celebrate Christmas by putting up pine trees and decorating with lights and wreaths. Some watch Christmas movies and snuggle up near the fireplace with hot chocolate. Some listen and sing along to Christmas carols.

Santa a large jolly man with a red suit brings presents to the good boys & girls every Christmas eve. The children leave milk and cookies and carrots for the reindeer.

This is why Christmas is full of joy and happiness. The reasons for the season...
