

This is what Christmas means to me. The first thing is well... I have 5 Christmas's' with different family members of my family (I have a lot of family) and my grandparents make a breakfast lasagna called egg bake. When I have Christmas at my grandma Sheldon's she ALWAYS has us sing a song. We usually sing "Jingle Bells" or "Rudolph the red nosed reindeer" with my cousins then we go around and say what we are most excited about this Christmas.

It's not all about the presents, it's about spending time with your family. Some younger kids don't understand that fact, probably ages 1 week through 5 years and every year. I got my teacher a gift so this year it is for Mrs. Marlett. I'll buy her what's on the "my favorites "on the meet the teacher page that i still have at home. I might try to convince my mom to buy a present for my principal Mr. Heide maybe something in his favorite color or a golden retriever picture.

I will also get my friends a present for Anna, Bree, Clara, Cate, Olivia, Zac and Cooper. This will be my first year getting a present for Cooper. I will actually get all my classmates one.

The last thing is it is to celebrate Jesus' birth I Looooooooooooooooovvvvvvvvvveeeeeee Jesus I even go to church that is what Christmas means to me.
