

HASTINGS Jingle & Mingle

My favorite part about Christmas is when my family gets together, and we open presents. What we do is eat breakfast, play inside and watch movies. We like to go to my grandma's house and make cookies. On Christmas eve we hang up stockings with my family and we open a gift of pajamas and new Christmas ornament that we can hang on our tree together. Being with my family is what Christmas means to me.