

Christmas is a special holiday that I spend with my family and exchange gifts with people.

It is Jesus's birthday I love Christmas so much and hope that people celebrate with family and friends.

It doesn't have to be celebrated but it is one memorable day. You don't have to decorate or give presents but celebrating it, is a given day to Jesus and the Holy Ghost. That is what Christmas means to me.