

Christmas to me means Jesus. I like Jesus and it makes me think of him when it's Christmas because Christmas was his birthday. Christmas also means to me the act of giving gifts. I think it is good because we want to be respectful and give kindness to other people. Christmas also means to me the "spirit" of Christmas because not only do you just get food, gifts and all that, but you also get to spend time with your family and friends. Also we love Christmas food. I love it and I know Jesus would too. My favorite thing to do on Christmas is to wake up early and give the first present to someone in my family and waking up smelling baked cinnamon rolls in the morning. That's what Christmas means to me.
